ALL ARE WELCOME

FCJ Retreat & Conference Centre - an "Oasis" in the Heart of Calgary - welcomes individuals, families, all age groups and offers spiritual renewal through various programs. FCJ Centre strives to provide a space for individuals or groups to step away from the distractions of everyday life and focus on personal growth, prayer, spritual development, health and wellness, community building, or creative pursuits.

SETTING

The FCJ Centre's peaceful grounds on the banks of the Elbow River with close proximity to walking and biking trails lend themselves perfectly to individuals and groups seeking an "Oasis of Peace".

Six outdoor sites: Meditation Garden; Station of the Cross; Lourdes Grotto; Peace Pole; Fire Pit; and Labyrinth. Indoor facilities include: Unique multi-use conference and meeting rooms for 2 to 25 guests; sleeping accommodations for up to 48 guests; dining rooms; lending library with over 1,500 books; large Chapel and meditation spaces.

COUNSELLING SERVICES

Counselling is often the first and usually one of the best defense we have against a whole range of psychological issues like depression, grief and anxiety. As we face our own unique struggles on our journey through life, at times the challenges we face can be overwhelming.

The FCJ Centre, through our counselling services, strives to provide a safe compassionate place, where individuals can be heard. Sr. Ger Curran FCJ, our in-house counsellor is there to help and highlight the emotional and intellectual experience of a client which can facilitate change in life for them.

There is no fixed charge for counselling. However, a suggested donation of $80.00 per hour is recommended, negotiable according to need. This donation supports our ongoing work, and it is tax deductible.

If you would like a brief conversation with a counsellor before making an appointment, please contact the FCJ Centre at (403) 228-4215.

COMPANIONS IN MISSION

In 2002 The Sisters FCJ invited other women and men to accompany them, not as members of the religious order, but as companions who would also live and share the charism (spirituality) as FCJ Companions in Mission (CiM).

Preparation for commitment as a CiM involves a formation program over a period of time. CiMs commit to attending regular meetings, fostering a spirit of companionship and making time in their lives for reflection, prayer and service to others.

Those who want to learn more about the spirituality and charism of the Sister FCJ and the Companions in Mission are invited to contact Sheila at sheilalewrenz@yahoo.com for more information about our programs.
